BLUE WATER
SAILING SCHOOL

Mediterranean Sailing Tour

Blue Water Sailing School's 2024 Mediterranean Sailing Tour will be held along the wonderful southern Turkish coastline. With the Taurus mountains as our spectacular backdrop, we have two weeks of sailing to really relax and experience it all.

Enjoy smooth sailing in warm turquoise waters, stunning bays, ancient cities, fascinating ruins and unique family-run restaurants. Join our luxury hosted 57 footer or skipper your own charter yacht in the security of our flotilla.

Hosted Yacht

8-22 June

$4,800 (pp twin share)
plus shared costs ($650)

Istanbul & Gallipoli Option

4-8 June

$1,890 (pp twin share)

Sailing Options

Hosted Yacht

Join our sensational Jeanneau 57 with its massive covered cockpit and huge saloon. Cabins with double, single and bunk beds offering plenty of options for solo travellers. No sailing experience necessary, but plenty of opportunity to learn and be involved.

Flotilla

Charter your own yacht and join our flotilla. For as little as $8,600 for a 6 berth, 34 foot yacht (that's $1,430 per person for two weeks!) it is an economical, low stress way to go. We look after the itinerary and bookings, provide you with daily briefings, assist you to berth at the end of the day, and can provide support if there is an issue. We know the best spots, and can help ensure you make the most from your holiday.

Itinerary and Experiences

We start out at Marmaris on 8 June having transferred from Dalaman Airport, provisioned our yacht and checked in.

As we head east one of our first stops is the stunning Ekinick Bay with its long beach, excellent local restaurant, and small harbour. From here you can take a riverboat trip up the Dalyan River to see the spectacular ancient rock tombs of Kaunos. The restaurant here is excellent with its magnificent meze, seafood and local blue crab.

Sailing further along the coastline we reach Cold Water Bay with its underwater springs. After a refreshing swim, dine in the wonderful alfresco restaurant overlooking the bay. Next morning hike to the truly haunting deserted Greek village that inspired the novel Birds Without Wings.

The next few days we continue east, enjoying the holiday towns on the edge of the mountains and the stunning bays of the eastern Mediterranean. Near Kalkan we have a long beach all to ourselves and visit the extensive ruins of the ancient Roman city of Patara. We will also swim among the sunken ruins of Kekova, lunch in Butterfly Bay and enjoy the huge agricultural market at the unspoilt town of Finike. An optional bus trip from Finike to Antalya provides an opportunity for a guided tour of its beautiful ancient town.

Our second week covers the same water, but offers different ports and experiences. At Myra we will not only visit the ancient Roman grain port of Adrianake, but head into nearby Myra which is the town belonging to St Nicholas (a.k.a. Santa Claus). As well as some great kebabs there are some impressive ruins to see. Further west is the party town of Kas with great bars and restaurants. Gemiler Island is a fascinating stop as we follow the ancient Pilgrim's Way to the burial place of St Nicholas. In Fethiye we eat at a unique seafood restaurant, before heading to the boaties' paradise of Gocek Marina. In Fethiye Bay (see the cover picture) you will hike up to 2,500 year old tombs and snorkel among ancient ruins in Cleopatra Bay before we sail to Marmaris for our final night.

We will experience a wonderful variety of berths, from quiet coves with a simple family restaurant, modern marinas, a busy dock and a quayside next to our restaurant.

Istanbul & Gallipoli Option

4-8 June, 2024

Istanbul is one of the most fascinating cities in the world. Having taken over a dozen groups there we have developed a 'highlights' tour that offers the experience of a lifetime.
